Studies Association

The British International Studies Association 42nd Annual Conference 14th to 16th June 2017, Brighton, UK.

Dear Colleague,

Welcome to Brighton. The conference sessions are all based in the Jurys Inn Brighton Waterfront. In this pack you will find:

- The conference timetable
- Workshop Booklet
- The conference panel programme booklet
- The panel room grid
- Panel room plan
- A list working group meetings
- The list of delegates
- Publishers Booklet
- 2018 BISA 43rd Annual Conference Flier

Please pick up your delegates badge (and conference pack if ordered) from the registration desks in the Atrium Restaurant, so we know you are at the event.

We do hope you have an enjoyable time in the panel sessions and networking at this event. Hope to see you again for our 43rd conference in Bath 2018.

Kindest regards

International Relations

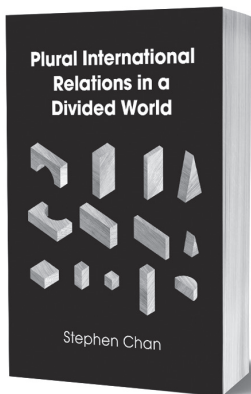

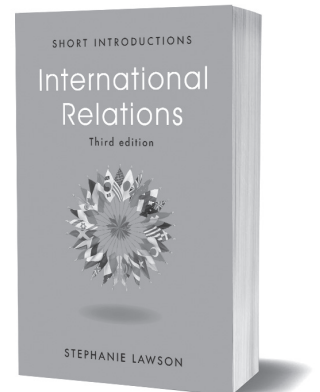

THIRD EDITION

STEPHANIE LAWSON

"Stephanie Lawson has provided us with an engaging and sophisticated introduction to international relations which, now in its third edition, has proven the value of an approach that provides a long-term historical perspective on the enduring questions at the heart of this subject. It guides us through the competing arguments and theoretical approaches with admirable clarity and economy."

Rosemary Foot, University of Oxford

January 2017 / PB 978-1-5095-0856-3 / £15.99

Plural International Relations in a Divided World

STEPHEN CHAN

"Stephen Chan is a rare voice of originality in the study of international relations. He also writes well, a relatively unusual trait in a subject befogged by jargon. Chan cuts through the thickets to make a clear and impassioned plea for more openness and intellectual honesty in the subject. In the process he tells a rattling good yarn, with marvelous character portraits, momentous events and syntheses of very difficult ideas, all in clear language. I can only applaud him for it."

Andrew Williams, University of St Andrews

January 2017 / PB 978-1-5095-0868-6 / £16.99

Will China Dominate the 21st Century?

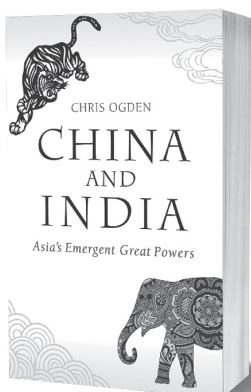

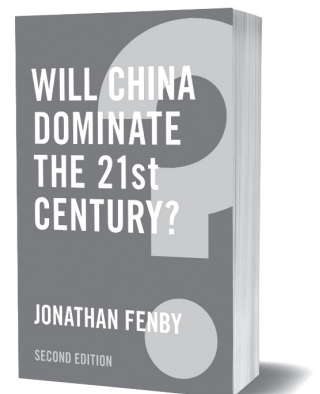

SECOND EDITION

JONATHAN FENBY

"Fenby's new edition penetratingly punctures the myth that China is on the verge of becoming a major world power – to the contrary, the author identifies a plethora of factors that holds China back in its quest for greatness. His sobering analysis is not pessimistic, it is realistic. All analysts – from scholars to investment fund managers to government officials – would do well to carefully read this book."

David Shambaugh, The George Washington University and author of China's Future

February 2017 / PB 978-1-5095-1097-9 / £9.99

China and India Asia's Emergent Great Powers

CHRIS OGDEN

"Writing with clarity and verve, Ogden demonstrates an extraordinary mastery of the subject. His magisterial analysis makes a unique and invaluable contribution to the field and will be of considerable interest to students and scholars of Asian politics as well as anyone seeking to understand the trajectory of India and China and their impact on the contemporary world."

Sumit Ganguly, Indiana University

April 2017 / PB 978-0-7456-8987-6 / £16.99
